CALL FOR REVIEWERS

The Latin American Council of Management Schools, to maintain the quality of the papers presented at the Annual Assembly, relies on the peer review process. If you are an experienced reviewer or if you are interested in reviewing for the first time CLADEA invites you to be part of the CLADEA 2022 REVIEWERS. We appreciate the effort that you will contribute to the review of the papers, without your help it would be impossible to maintain the high standards. of papers to be presented at the next International Congress to be held from October 21 to 26 under the modality of a hybrid event in Guayaquil - Ecuador. Blind review is an essential element for the presentation of papers at the congress, which has two main objectives:

1. Act as a filter and determine the importance and originality of the article.
2. Improve the quality of research by giving reviewers the opportunity to Propose improvements.

CLADEA will grant a certificate for the work carried out.
