XX DOCTORAL COLLOQUIUM #CLADEA2022

We cordially invite all doctoral students and researchers to participate in the CLADEA Doctoral Colloquium that will be held virtually next Monday, October 24, 2022.

The CLADEA Doctoral Colloquium is a space where doctoral students and researchers have the opportunity to discuss their objectives, methods and results of their research and then receive the point of view of an international panel based on their experience in the topic addressed. In order to improve your research effort.

By participating in this event, doctoral students and researchers will also be able to obtain guidelines on how to publish articles in prestigious journals, as well as academic publications. Likewise, doctoral students and researchers will also have the opportunity to network internationally with colleagues who have an affinity for similar topics.

Indications of Format and Writing of the document "PhD Project"

Doctoral students should not include their name anywhere in the document. The text of the dissertation should not exceed 20 pages (including References, tables and figures).

The text must be written in Times New Roman font 12, at 1.5 line spacing. Whether you are presenting a part of your doctoral thesis or the proposal itself, the document must cover the following aspects:

- Abstract (15-20 lines)
- Literature review
- Discussion of the proposal
- Methodology
- Findings (if it is a doctoral proposal, please indicate the expected findings or leave this section undeveloped and focus the discussion on the theoretical framework)
- Discussion and Conclusions
- Bibliographic references
